To prohibit securities trading based on nonpublic information relating to Congress, and to require additional reporting by Members and employees of Congress of securities transaction, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 28, 2006

Mr. BAIRD (for himself and Ms. S LAUGHTER) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services, and in addition to the Committees on House Administration, the Judiciary, and Agriculture, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned.

A BILL

To prohibit securities trading based on nonpublic information relating to Congress, and to require additional reporting by Members and employees of Congress of securities transaction, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Stop Trading on Congressional Knowledge Act”.

SEC. 2. NONPUBLIC INFORMATION RELATING TO CONGRESS.

(a) Securities Transactions.—Section 10 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(c) Nonpublic Information Relating to Congress.—

“(1) Prohibition.—Not later than 270 days after the date of enactment of this subsection, the Commission shall by rule prohibit any person from buying or selling the securities of any issuer while such person is in possession of material nonpublic information relating to any pending or prospective legislative action relating to such issuer if—

“(A) such information was obtained by reason of such person being a Member or employee of Congress; or

“(B) such information was obtained from a Member or employee of Congress, and such person knows that the information was so obtained.

“(2) Disclosure.—Not later than 270 days after the date of enactment of this subsection, the Commission shall by rule prohibit any Member or employee of Congress, or any other person from disclosing material nonpublic information relating to any pending or prospective legislative action relating to any issuer if that Member, employee, or other person has reason to believe that the information will be used to buy or sell the securities of such issuer based on such information.”.

(b) Commodity Transactions.—Section 4c of the Commodities Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. 6c) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(h) Nonpublic Information Relating to Congress.—

“(1) Prohibition.—Not later than 270 days after the date of enactment of this subsection, the Commission shall by rule prohibit any person from buying or selling any commodity for future delivery while such person is in possession of material non-public information relating to any pending or prospective legislative action relating to such commodity if—

“(A) such information was obtained by reason of such person being a Member or employee of Congress; or

“(B) such information was obtained from a Member or employee of Congress, and such person knows that the information was so obtained.
“(2) DISCLOSURE.—Not later than 270 days after the date of enactment of this subsection, the Commission shall by rule prohibit any Member or employee of Congress, or any other person from disclosing material nonpublic information relating to any pending or prospective legislative action relating to any commodity if that Member, employee, or other person has reason to believe that the information will be used to buy or sell such commodity for future delivery based on such information.”.

SEC. 3. TIMELY REPORTING OF SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS.

(a) AMENDMENT.—Section 103 of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 is amended by adding at the end the following subsection:

“(l) Within 30 days after the purchase, sale, or exchange of any stocks, bonds, commodities futures, or other forms of securities that are otherwise required to be reported under this Act and the transaction of which involves at least $1000 by any Member of Congress or officer or employee of the legislative branch required to so file, that Member, officer, or employee shall file a report of that transaction with the Clerk of the House of Representatives in the case of a Representative in Congress, a Delegate to Congress, or the Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico, or with the Secretary of the Senate in the case of a Senator.”.

(b) Effective Date.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to transactions occurring on or after the date that is 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.
